Lockyer Ward Estate Art Auction

A Sale of Fine Canadian Artwork to Benefit the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital Foundation
Hospice Prince Edward & the County Community Foundation

Jack and Ruby Lockyer Ward were life-long County residents, well known for their involvement in many community activities and support of a wide range of charitable organizations.

Ruby, a florist and owner of the Lockyer Flower Shoppe, passed away in 2006. Jack passed away in 2011, after practicing law in Picton for over 45 years.

For many years, Ruby was the chairperson of the Salvation Army Red Shield Campaign and a primary fundraiser for the restoration of Glenwood Cemetery.

Jack was a charter member of the Picton Kiwanis Club and long time board member of the Picton United Church.

Jack and Ruby were passionate patrons of the arts, with a keen interest in theatre, music, painting and sculpture. They were among the original supporting members of both the Shaw and Stratford Festivals.

Jack's eclectic interest in art culminated in a large collection of works by a broad spectrum of Canadian artists, many of whom are local to Prince Edward County and Eastern Ontario.

His interest in the success of emerging talent was evident in his on-going support of many new artists and the lasting friendships he developed with them.
